1 - Reform and Europe

The now forgotten and mostly unknown definition of Europe

In the United States and Europe, because of the increasing immigration, racial and religious problems, and falling wage levels, there is a call for immigration reform.

A call for reform is simply recognition that (1) something was not done right in the first place (2) or there has been a change and now things are going wrong.

And, if that is the case, then the questions follow:

What historical changes took place to require reform? How can we fix the immigration problem?

First here are two definitions:

Definition of Reform:

- make changes for improvement in order to remove abuse and injustices; "reform a political system"
- bring, lead, or force to abandon a wrong or evil course of life, conduct, and adopt a right one; "The Church reformed me"; "reform your conduct"
- a change for the better as a result of correcting abuses; "justice was for sale before the reform of the law courts"
- a campaign aimed to correct abuses or malpractices; "the reforms he proposed were too radical for the politicians"
- improve by alteration or correction of errors or defects and put into a better condition; "reform the health system in this country"
- change for the better; "The lazy student promised to reform"; "the habitual cheater finally saw the light"
- self-improvement in behavior or morals by abandoning some vice; "the family rejoiced in the drunkard's reform"

Or as John the Baptist and Jesus Christ might say:

Matthew 3:1. In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judea, 2. And saying, Repent ye:

Matthew 4:17. From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent:

Definition of Europe: This is the photocopy of the definition of Europe in Webster's 1828 dictionary. It reads:

EUROPE, n. Bochart supposes this word to be composed of (Hebrew characters meaning) white face, the land of white people, as distinguished from the Ethiopians, black-faced people, or tawny inhabitants of Asia and Africa.

In the United States, when it comes to race, just as African means Black, European means White. An African-American is assumed to be Black just as a European-American is assumed to be White. According to older dictionaries, as quoted above, Europe was known as the land of White People.

These White European people migrated to North America and set up the United States of America. But, where did the White people of Europe come from? The answer once known but presently politically incorrect is simply, the White Europeans are the Lost Tribes of Israel. After being driven out of Palestine by Assyria and Babylon they migrated into Europe through the Caucasus Mountains gaining the name Caucasians. These 'lost tribe' nations were among the first to be converted to Christianity by the Apostles. These nations became known as Christendom. These 'many nations' making up Christendom is part of a fulfillment of God's promise to Abraham. The promise was that Abraham would be the father of MANY nations. (Many nations, not just a nationality called 'Jews' or one small nation in Palestine.)

Genesis 17: 4-5 As for me (God), behold, my covenant is with thee (Abraham), and thou shalt be a father of many nations. 5. Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shall be Abraham; for a father of many nations have I made thee.

When Isaac was blessing his grandchildren he crossed his arms and placed his hands on Ephriam and Manassah. Joseph objected thinking the hands were wrongly placed. Isaac refused:

Genesis 48:19 And his father (Isaac now known as Israel) refused, and said, I know it, my son, (Joseph) I know it: he (Ephriam) also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: (Like Great Britain) but truly his younger brother (Manassah) shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations. (Like the United States)

The name for the 'Saxons' of Europe comes from "Isaac's sons".

The many nations of Abraham include both the Arabs, Jews, and many others such as the Edomites. The many nations of his son Joseph include the nations of Europe such as England, Ireland, Scotland, Denmark, Germany, France, and Italy. Elsewhere: The United States, Canada, Australia and so forth. One of Joseph's sons was named Judah. The Jews take their name from Joseph's son Judah. But the Jews are only one of the many, and probably the smallest of all the Abrahamic nations. An abundance of proof is offered at www.firstchurchoftheinternet.org.

Matthew 10:14 & 27 I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. 27. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

James 1:1. James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

'His sheep', the twelve tribes scattered abroad became Christendom. People from what was once called Christendom migrated to North America and founded the United States, a ‘melting pot’ of the ‘lost’ tribes of Israel not the now politically correct ‘melting pot’ of races and religions.

2 - The United States Constitution, Preamble

The opening statement of the United States Constitution calls for the establishment of a nation “for ourselves and our Posterity”.

“We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.”

“Ourselves” were White Europeans and “our posterity” were the future generations of White people. As a result, in early America, citizenship was for White Europeans only. To hold public office you also had to be a Christian. At that time The United States was official a Christian Nation. For historical proof that the United States is a Christian nation see the U.S. Supreme Court case Holy Trinity Church v. United States 1892. Concerning White only citizenship Dred Scott, v. John F. A. Sandford 1856.

Christianity was a requirement for public office. Holy Trinity Church v United States mentioned above includes this observation:

“Or, as in sections 5 and 14 of article 7 of the constitution of Mississippi, (1832:) "No person who denies the being of a God, or a future state of rewards and punishments, shall hold any office in the civil department of this state. ... Religion {516} morality, and knowledge being necessary to good government, the preservation of liberty, and the happiness of mankind, schools, and the means of education, shall forever be encouraged in this state.”

Or by article 22 of the constitution of Delaware, (1776,) which required all officers, besides an oath of allegiance, to make and subscribe the following declaration: "I, A.B., do profess faith in God the Father, and in Jesus Christ His only Son, and in the Holy Ghost, one God, blessed for evermore; and I do acknowledge the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testament to be given by divine inspiration."

Today, all we do is have a swearing in ceremony, usually with one hand on the Bible, and a promise to support and defend both the State and National constitutions. There is a good chance that the prospective officeholder has not read or studied either of these two constitutions or the Bible. Today the office holder can be of any race or religion.

For more documentation read America--free, white, & Christian: by Charles A. Wiseman. The book documents the foundational acts and principles in United States law and history that legally established the United States as a free, white, and Christian nation. 3 - Religious and Racial History of the United States

Religion: Europe has long been plagued with religious infighting. The Puritans came to America to get away from persecution. But in Europe it was not one religion persecuting another. It was one Christian denomination against another Christian denomination or a fight between Catholics and Protestants. To eliminate that problem in the future the writers of the U.S. Constitution added to the first amendment.

“Congress shall make no law regarding and establishment of religion nor prohibiting the free exercise thereof...”

In 1776 the United States was a Christian Nation. Holy Trinity Church v. U.S. Christianity was the established religion. Runkel vs. Winemiller (1799)

In Runkel vs. Winemiller Justice Samuel Chase said, "By our form of government the Christian religion is the established religion, and all sects and denominations of Christians are placed on the same equal footing."

It is important to understand that, when written, the First Amendment, “establishment of religion” meant “a denomination of Christians” and “religion” meant Christianity.

This amendment is better understood in this way; “Congress shall make no law regarding (any Christian denomination) nor prohibiting the free exercise thereof...”

Today’s politically correct version of the First Amendment is “Separation of Church and State meaning (1) No Christianity in government . (2) No free exercise of Christianity on public property. (3) All religions are equal. (4) And even military chaplains are not to use the name Jesus Christ in prayers. Of course, this “all religions are equal” belief violates the First Commandment. “I am the Lord thy God, Ye shalt have no other gods before me.”

Matthew 4:10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, (In Exodus 34:14 & Deuteronomy 5:6) Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

The complete First Amendment has six parts and reads:

- Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion,
- or prohibiting the free exercise thereof;
- or abridging the freedom of speech,
- or of the press;
- or the right of the people peaceably to assemble,
- and to petition the government for a redress of grievances.

The modern courts interpret the first two as narrowly as possible, while interpreting the remainder as widely as possible. For example, a public display of the Ten Commandments is unconstitutional while a public flag burning is Constitutional “freedom off speech”.

Today, in The United States, the Christian religion is no longer allowed in public places or in politics. (See Religion and Politics, Separation of Church and State and 501c3 Silent Churches) Minority churches seem to be excepted from the rule prohibiting speaking about politics from the pulpits

There have been many racial changes since the United States was founded in 1776. Prior to the Civil War only White Europeans could hold citizenship. (Dred Scott v. Sandford - U.S. Supreme Court)

4 - The Civil War

The District of Columbia takes power over the States.

The United States began as a voluntary union of thirteen sovereign White states. After the Civil War membership in the Union was no longer voluntary. The Civil War set up a central government ruling over one nation divided into many states. In fact, the war was fought, not to free slaves, but rather to impose District of Columbia rule over the South. District of Columbia rule over the South certainly was not voluntary. The Civil War was fought to prevent the Southern States from leaving the ‘voluntary’ association.

In the famous words of Lincoln, a government “of the people (of the District of Columbia), for the people (of the District of Columbia) and by the people (of the District of Columbia).” This new government was certainly not of the people of the Southern States, for the people of the Southern States or by the people of the Southern States.

Check it out for yourself. The Real Lincoln: A New Look at Abraham Lincoln, His Agenda, and an Unnecessary War -- by Thomas DiIorenzo; at your public library or Amazon.com.

5 - Fourteenth Amendment Citizens

Following the Civil War the 14th Amendment was forcefully passed. Prior to the 14th Amendment only White Europeans could hold citizenship in the United States. The passage of the 14th Amendment made citizenship available to people of all races and religions. Read it for yourself.

14th Amendment, Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Today, because of the 14th amendment, there are two classes of citizens in The United States, (1) Preamble and (2) 14th Amendment.

(1) Citizens of the States. These are the “us and our posterity” of the Constitution’s Preamble. These are the White European people.

“We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.”

(2) 14th Amendment Citizens. These are the non-Europeans made U.S. citizens by the 14th Amendment’s “all persons born” clause. 14th Amendment citizens are called minorities. “Minority” has nothing to do with numbers. No matter how few, European people are never minorities or majorities. Rather Europeans-Americans are “non-minorities”. In politically correct language it is ‘minorities’ and ‘non-minorities’.

6 - What does the Bible have to do with all of this?

and

What does inheritance have to do with immigration anyway?

besides

I’m sure that if I need to know about this my Pastor would have told me!

From time to time God will take the land from one people and give it to another. God does this as a reward for good conduct or a punishment for wicked conduct. Exodus 23:28, 33:2, 34:11 Numbers 33:52, Deuteronomy 4:38, 11:23

A people can acquire a land to live on several ways. For example; by war, by purchase, by claiming vacant land. Whatever the method, whether right or wrong, once acquired, for any people to survive, the land must be defended and passed on to future generations.

7 - Everyone Wants a Bigger Slice of the American Pie

Those whose ancestors once lived in, or believe that they lived in a land will make claims for possession or ‘reparations’. Presently it seems that everyone except the White-Europeans are claiming a piece of the American pie. Mexico wants California, Texas, Colorado and New Mexico (for starters) African-Americans want reparations. They even want ‘reparations’ from White Northerners whose ancestors, supposedly, shed their blood in the Civil War to free the slaves. ‘Native-Americans (Indians) want land lost to the White man returned. . China is even thinking about claiming all the land east of the Mississippi because “America was first discovered by the Chinese” and “The Chinese are the ancestors of the American Indians”, (Who now have the politically correct name ‘native-Americans’)

The following applies to all people of all lands. No matter how a land is obtained, whether obtained rightly or wrongly, for survival of the owners, the land must be preserved for the children of the present owners. Keeping the land is all about two things:

(1) Staying on God’s good side by obeying His moral laws. (So that God does not get angry and cause you to be dispossessed and the land given to another people.)

(2) Obeying the inheritance laws of the Bible. (So that the land does not gradually pass to other peoples.) Later it will be shown that the inheritance laws of the Bible are one of the many reasons some marriages are forbidden.

8 - The Earth belongs to God and God often decides who lives where.

Exodus 19:5 Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine:

Judges 11:23 So now the LORD God of Israel hath dispossessed the Amorites from before his people Israel, and shouldst thou possess it?

9 - Joshua 23 can be applied to The United States

Moses, Joshua and George Washington gave farewell speeches. As you read the following think of George Washington's farewell address.

1. And it came to pass a long time after that the LORD had given rest unto Israel from all their enemies round about, that Joshua waxed old and stricken in age.

2. And Joshua called for all Israel, and for their elders, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and said unto them, I am old and stricken in age:

3. And ye have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto all these nations because of you; for the LORD your God is he that hath fought for you.

4. Behold, I have divided unto you by lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even unto the great sea westward.

5. And the LORD your God, he shall expel them from before you, and drive them from out of your sight; and ye shall possess their land, as the LORD your God hath promised unto you. (From the Atlantic to the Pacific, some called this "America's Manifest Destiny". Ezekiel 38 mentions America and calls it a land "gathered out of many people".)

Now that you have it, keep it.

6. Be ye therefore very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, (Deuteronomy in your Bible) that ye turn not aside therefrom to the right hand or to the left;

7. That ye come not among these nations, these that remain among you; neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow yourselves unto them:

8. But cleave unto the LORD your God, as ye have done unto this day.

9. For the LORD hath driven out from before you great nations and strong: but as for you, no man hath been able to stand before you unto this day.

10. One man of you shall chase a thousand: for the LORD your God, he it is that fighteth for you, as he hath promised you. (America became the most powerful nation in the world.)

America's Fall From Grace. Mixed marriages lead to land loss and further immigration

11. Take good heed therefore unto yourselves, that ye love the LORD your God. (How? It is in verse 12.)

12. Else if ye do in any wise go back, and cleave unto the remnant of these nations, even these that remain among you, and shall make marriages with them, and go in unto them, and they to you:

*Many states and churches now approve of intermarriage whereas in the past it was both a crime and sin.

13. Know for a certainty that the LORD your God will no more drive out any of these nations from before you; but they shall be snares and traps unto you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you.

*Verse 13 describes the present plight of the White-Europeans in the many countries that have not listened to verse 6 above. All national leaders of all nations should know very the first step to keeping aliens out of your land is not to marry them.

14. And, behold, this day I am going the way of all the earth: and ye know in all your hearts and in all your souls, that not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spake concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, and not one thing hath failed thereof.

Joshua makes reference to the blessings and curses listed in Deuteronomy 28.

15. Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all good things are come upon you, which the LORD your God promised you; (Deuteronomy 28:1-15) so shall the LORD bring upon you all evil things, until he have destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you. (This one verse summarizes all of Deuteronomy 28.)

16. When ye have transgressed the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed yourselves to them; then shall the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and ye shall perish quickly from off the good land which he hath given unto you.

The White-Europeans are the descendants of the Israelites. This is their fate if things continue as at the present. For more information read all of Deuteronomy 28 especially verse 43 and 44 about aliens in the land.

Deuteronomy 28:43. The stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high; and thou shalt come down very low. 44. He shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him: he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail.

Put your thinking cap on: If Deuteronomy 28 was about the Jews (calling themselves Israel) living in modern day Palestine then it is the Palestinians that would “get up above thee very high; and thou (the Jews) come down very low”. It would be the Palestinians lending the money to the Jews. The Palestinians would be the head and the Jews the tail.

Anyone who reads a newspaper or watches TV can tell who is in charge. Ask yourself, is Deuteronomy coming to pass in Palestine or in America and Europe? Ask yourself, was Moses speaking of the White people in America or the Israeli in Palestine?

Concerning “and have gone and served other gods” above in Deuteronomy 28:16. One of the reasons mixed marriages are forbidden is found in Deuteronomy 7:1-4.

10 - Deuteronomy 7

1. When the LORD thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and hath cast out many nations before thee, the Hittites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than thou;
2. And when the LORD thy God shall deliver them before thee; thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor shew mercy unto them: (When settling North America the White Man did make covenants with the Indians.)

3. Neither shalt thou make marriages with them; thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son.

4. For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods: so will the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and destroy thee suddenly Verse 4’s “serving other gods” makes mixed marriages a violation of the First Commandment. But modern day clergy do bless mixed marriages. Perhaps they think they and their congregations are wiser than King Solomon.”

One of the easiest ways to defeat God’s people is simply to kindle God’s anger against them by marrying them and converting him to your religion. Then sit back and watch God “destroy thee suddenly”. This is the Doctrine of Balaam mentioned in Revelation.

Revelation 2:14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

11 - Why King Solomon lost his kingdom, and how America is making the same mistake.

1 Kings 11 is about Deuteronomy 7:1-4 being ignored resulting in King Solomon losing his kingdom

1. But king Solomon loved many strange women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites;
2. Of the nations concerning which the LORD said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you: for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods: Solomon clave unto these in love.

3. And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives turned away his heart.

4. For it came to pass, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods: and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as was the heart of David his father.

5. For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

6. And Solomon did evil in the sight of the LORD, and went not fully after the LORD, as did David his father.

7. Then did Solomon build an high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Jerusalem, and for Molech, the abomination of the children of Ammon.

8. And likewise did he for all his strange wives, which burnt incense and sacrificed unto their gods.

9. And the LORD was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned from the LORD God of Israel, which had appeared unto him twice,

10. And had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which the LORD commanded.

11. Wherefore the LORD said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant.

A taxpayer's rebellion followed and the nation was divided into two nations, Israel and Judah. Later Israel and Judah were conquered by Assyria and Babylon.

12 - King Cyrus of Persia and Governor Nehemiah reestablish the Judah Kingdom in Palestine

Ezra 1:2 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The LORD God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

Nehemiah of the Bible was not a priest or prophet. Nehemiah was governor over Judea. Herod was a governor of Judea in Christ's day.

To preserve the nation from decay Nehemiah did several things. Nehemiah knew that mixed marriages were a cause of the downfall of King Solomon's kingdom. First, Governor Nehemiah set up a policy similar to "English Only". Next Nehemiah forbid mixed marriages. Here it is in Nehemiah 13:24-27

(24) And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people.

(25) And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, {saying}, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves.

(26) Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin.

(27) Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to transgress against our God in marrying strange wives?

Governor Nehemiah called mixed marriages a great evil. Nehemiah said that, even if the king did it, it was sin and a transgression against God. And the rules are the same for everyone, no matter what position in society, and no matter what your race. But, movies, magazines, television, church pulpits and others endorse mixed marriages. Anyone objecting to these practices is called a bigot, racist, hater and un-Christian, but they will not tell you about Nehemiah 13 or Ezra 9 and 10.

For years Christian magazines have run articles approving mixed marriages. Many are filled with pictures of mixed couples. Popular radio and television preachers tell their listeners that there are no scriptures against interracial marriage, but there are, and just a few are quoted here.

To say that, there are no scriptures against interracial marriage is one of the biggest lies ever told. With such lies coming from respected religious sources supplemented by secular promotion of mixed marriages; parents often find their children believe God approves of marriage between the races. Today mixed marriages are even looked upon as patriotic. And the question is not, are some races are good or bad? And the question is not, are some races better than others? In this case,

- (1) Do you want to keep the land God gave your people and
- (2) Do you want to pass it on to your posterity?
- (3) Or do you want “anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and destroy thee suddenly”?

Look at Ezra 9:6, Ezra fell on his knees and said, "O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens." Why was Ezra so ashamed, what was this great sin? This is given a few verses earlier:

Ezra 9:1. Now when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

Here we had the Israelites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. All living together in one great society; a melting pot. And what happened? Exactly what is happening in The United States and Europe. Look at verse 2.

Ezra 9:2 For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass."

Today, as in Nehemiah's day, many of the highest office holders in government are involved in mixed marriages. Ezra said that this was one of the gravest, most terrible sins that any nation could commit! And then as now, the nations leaders "hath been chief in this trespass."

A third thing that Governor Nehemiah did to preserve the nation's future was to reestablish the Sabbath day as a day of rest. In the United States Civil Sabbath Day enforcement laws were called Blue Laws.

Blue Laws: legislation regulating public and private conduct, especially laws relating to Sabbath observance. The term was originally applied to the 17th-century laws of the theocratic New Haven colony; they were called “blue laws” after the blue paper on which they were printed. New Haven and other Puritan colonies of New England had rigid laws prohibiting Sabbath breaking, breaches in family discipline, drunkenness, and excesses in dress. Although such legislation had its origins in European Sabbatarian and sumptuary laws, the term “blue laws” is usually applied only to American legislation.

In 1961 the U.S. Supreme Court upheld these Blue laws. Yes! In the United States the State can tell you that you are not to work on Sunday and you can be fined or jailed if you do. And further, the Supreme Court said these Blue Laws did not violate “separation of Church and State”. But today, there is no enforcement in America’s business and industry. The Civil Sabbath day is completely ignored. Modern day Christians flood the Big Box Stores on Sunday. The clergy do not seem to mind at all. The Supreme Court decision on this is McGowan v. Maryland 366 U.S. 420 (1961).

13 - Numbers 27 - The Law of Inheritance

Another reason mixed marriages are forbidden.

(6 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,)

8. And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a man die, and have no son, then ye shall cause his inheritance to pass unto his daughter.

9. And if he have no daughter, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his brethren.

10. And if he have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his father's brethren.

11. And if his father have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his kinsman that is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it: and it shall be unto the children of Israel a statute of judgment, as the LORD commanded Moses.

If an Israelite married a Canaanite, upon the Israelite’s death the inheritance would pass to the Canaanite wife, her children or relatives.

Applying this Old Testament situation to New Testament America. The author knows of a case where a European-American married a Korean War bride. The man had a business, and twenty-nine acres of land. There were even oil wells on the land. Several years after the mixed marriage the Korean wife divorced the White man obtaining title to his home and land. The inheritance passed from one people to another people contrary to the Statute of Judgment of God in verse 11 above.

Ezra 9:12 Now therefore give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever.

1 Chronicles 28:8 Now therefore in the sight of all Israel the congregation of the LORD, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the LORD your God: that ye may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

14 - We're coming to America

The divorced Korean wife sponsored many of her relatives, and they in turn sponsored others. They all came to America to live in what was at one time the White man's inheritance. This one South Korean lady, all by herself, captured more American territory via marriage than the whole North Korean Army during the entire Korean War.

15 - Tears in the eyes of the grandparents

Imagine the situation that a mixed marriage puts the bride and groom's parents into.

Deuteronomy 28:15 But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes (including the marriage and inheritance laws) which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee:

Deuteronomy 28:32 (a) Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given unto another people, (b) and thine eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day long: (c) and there shall be no might in thine hand.

(a) Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given unto another people, When one person is given to another in a mixed marriage this is a fulfillment of the curse in Deuteronomy 28. If a White-European marries an African-American, or a Korean War bride, then the children are not counted as White but rather minorities. The children and inheritance have been given to another people.

(b) and thine eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day long:

The older American White European's look sadly upon their new multi-racial grandchildren and the little children do not look like themselves.

(c) and there shall be no might in thine hand. The White European grandparents dare not object simply because they would be called 'racists', 'bigots' and 'haters' even by the Clergyman who performed the mixed marriage. They might even be accused of a 'hate crime'. In early America any clergyman who performed a mixed marriage was fined or sent to jail.

And the inheritance passes from one people to another. If Moses had a child who wanted to be married outside her race, would Moses attend the wedding and proudly give his son or daughter away to another people?

What do you think? () Yes () No

What do you think, if Moses had a will, how would he pass on his property?

- () All Moses's children would share in inheriting his property.
- () Any mixed marriage child would be disinherited.

Genesis 26:34. And Esau was forty years old when he took to wife Judith the daughter of Beerli the Hittite, and Bashemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite: 35. Which were a grief of mind unto Isaac and to Rebekah.

Romans 9:13. As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

Hebrews 12:16. Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

16 - A Nation of Immigrants?

We are told, over and over, that The United States is a “nation of immigrants”. That phrase is constantly used against the founding Europeans to justify the further arrival of all non-white people from all non-white lands without restriction.

However, the people who founded The United States were not immigrants. The founders of America were colonists, pioneers, and conquerors.

Immigrants are people who come in later, after the nation is built, after all the hard work is done, to reap the benefits.

17 - There are two classes of immigrants, the talented and the poor

For example: A very talented person in India may come to America to study medicine. But since doctors make more money in America than India, upon becoming a doctor he should, but does not, return to India. He then uses his high income to buy a foreign car and bring his relatives to America. White European autoworkers lose their jobs to the foreign carmaker and go to the immigrant Doctor from India for “anger management” classes. (And the foreign doctor’s fee would be paid for by the American carmakers benefit package.)

Poor Mexican people come across America’s borders hoping to improve their condition. You would probably do the same if you were in their shoes. However, they are permitted to purchase homes and vote in elections. Mexicans become Mayors, Policemen, and Governors. In this way they inherit the land on the installment plan.

If these very same Mexicans crossed the border with gun in hand and a military uniform on their backs The United States government would shoot them on sight and bomb their factories.

Instead The United States government gives them green cards, welfare, and citizenship. American business closes factories in the States and builds replacement factories in Mexico. (NAFTA)

18 - Real Estate is not to be sold to foreigners

Leviticus 25

23. The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine; for ye are strangers and sojourners with me.

24. And in all the land of your possession ye shall grant a redemption for the land.

25. If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession, and if any of his kin come to redeem it, then shall he redeem that which his brother sold.

26. And if the man have none to redeem it, and himself be able to redeem it;

27. Then let him count the years of the sale thereof, and restore the overplus unto the man to whom he sold it; that he may return unto his possession.

28. But if he be not able to restore it to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him that hath bought it until the year of jubile: and in the jubile it shall go out, and he shall return unto his possession.

29. And if a man sell a dwelling house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within a full year may he redeem it.

30. And if it be not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be established for ever to him that bought it throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the jubile.

31. But the houses of the villages which have no wall round about them shall be counted as the fields of the country: they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubile.

32. Notwithstanding the cities of the Levites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Levites redeem at any time.

33. And if a man purchase of the Levites, then the house that was sold, and the city of his possession, shall go out in the year of jubile: for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.

34. But the field of the suburbs of their cities may not be sold; for it is their perpetual possession.

By God's Law, an immigrant or visitor can rent or lease land but he cannot buy it simply because the land is to be a perpetual possession of the nation's founders and their posterity. "For us and our posterity".

19 - America's Liberty Bell

The quotation on The United State's Liberty Bell is from Leviticus 25:10. "And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and Proclaim Liberty Throughout All The Land To All The Inhabitants Thereof"

How does a nation proclaim liberty? God's Law calls for the cancellation of debt every seven years. Every fifty years lost or foreclosed real estate is to be returned to the original owner or his heir. The applicable verses are Leviticus 25:8-34 and Deuteronomy 15:1-6. Deuteronomy 15 will not be discussed here since it is about bankruptcy law.

Leviticus 25:8-34

8. And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee forty and nine years.

9. Then shalt thou cause the trumpet of the jubile to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month, in the day of atonement shall ye make the trumpet sound throughout all your land.

10. And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubile unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family.

11. A jubile shall that fiftieth year be unto you: ye shall not sow, neither reap that which groweth of itself in it, nor gather the grapes in it of thy vine undressed.

12. For it is the jubile; it shall be holy unto you: ye shall eat the increase thereof out of the field.

13 In the year of this jubile ye shall return every man unto his possession.

14 And if thou sell ought unto thy neighbour, or buyest ought of thy neighbour's hand, ye shall not oppress one another:

15 According to the number of years after the jubile thou shalt buy of thy neighbour, and according unto the number of years of the fruits he shall sell unto thee:

16 According to the multitude of years thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years thou shalt diminish the price of it: for according to the number of the years of the fruits doth he sell unto thee.

17 Ye shall not therefore oppress one another; but thou shalt fear thy God: for I am the LORD your God.

Real estate was to be leased for up to 49 years rather than sold. That way hard times for a parent would not cost the child his inheritance. Real estate was not to be sold to 'strangers'. That was to keep business and industry out of the hands and control of foreigners and foreign nations. Question: Do God's laws on real estate contradict today's laws that say you must sell to anyone and everyone without discrimination?

God's Promise

18 Wherefore ye shall do my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them; and ye shall dwell in the land in safety. (What does this mean to a nation that does not?)

19 And the land shall yield her fruit, and ye shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety.

20 - Modern Day Slavery and The United States

There are two classes of slaves of The United States. 'of' was used rather than 'in' because modern day multinational corporations have improved upon past methods of oppression. This improvement will be explained below. Before talking about the two forms of modern day slavery in/of The United States you need to first understand something about 'slavery' in the Bible. The use of the English word 'slave' in translations doesn't mean that the Bible justifies slavery.

Many times, in the Bible, the word 'slave' or 'servant' simply means, what we call today, an employee. In today's language the king's servants could be called White House Aides. A factory's 'slaves' would simply be employees. Like 'slaves' employees are told when to show up for work and what to do on the job, and sometimes even what they can and cannot do off the job.

21 - Bible Law on wages and the treatment of aliens.

Exodus 22:21 Thou shalt neither vex a stranger, nor oppress him: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

Exodus 23:9 Also thou shalt not oppress a stranger: for ye know the heart of a stranger, seeing ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

22 - Using ‘out sourcing’, immigrants, illegal aliens and guest workers to do ‘jobs that Americans don’t want’

Deuteronomy 24:14. Thou shalt not oppress an hired servant that is poor and needy, whether he be of thy brethren, or of thy strangers that are in thy land within thy gates:

Zechariah 7:10. And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

Malachi 3:5. And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts.

Internal Slaves: The African-Americans ended up on American shores as a result of the Jewish controlled slave trade. The White European Christians getting ALL the blame. (Look up “Who brought the slaves to America” at www.Google.com.)

Lincoln ‘freed the slaves’ and the imposed 14th Amendment made them citizens. Today, these internal plantation slaves have been replaced by immigrants, illegal aliens and guest workers. This oppression justified by saying. “They do ‘jobs that Americans don’t want’.” This deceptive euphemism ‘jobs that Americans don’t want’ is used as a justification for allowing employers to increase profits by paying low wages for hard work.

What’s not wanted by Americans are jobs that oppress the needy and do not pay a living wage. If the poor immigrants were not in the land the wage level would be much higher and Americans seeking employment would fill those very same jobs. If American owned factories in foreign lands paid a decent wage there would be less need to come to America.

23 - Jobs Americans DO want

In the past, the vast number of Americans had jobs that paid a living wage. As time goes by this has changed. Now, to make ends meet, both husband and wife need employment. The number of children the parents can support is smaller and smaller.

Definitions of living wage on the Web:

- A wage sufficient to meet the basic needs of a worker and their dependents.
- a wage sufficient for a worker and family to subsist comfortably
- Living wage refers to the hourly wage that one deems necessary for a person to achieve a basic standard of living. In the context of developed countries such as the United Kingdom or Switzerland, this standard is generally considered to require that a person working forty hours a week, with no additional income, should be able to afford housing, food, utilities, transport, health care and a certain amount of recreation. This concept differs from the minimum wage because the latter is set by law and may fail to meet the requirements of a living wage. en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Living_wage Jobs Americans want, jobs all people of all nations want are not Slave Wage or Minimum Wage jobs, rather Living Wage jobs.

Before the time of ‘jobs that Americans don’t want’ the railroads were built with a form of slave labor. Industrialists imported Chinese to build railroads under slave like conditions. This is what you can read in the Supreme Court case of Holy Trinity Church v. U.S. 143 U.S. 457, 465.

This small part of the case is about Chinese immigrants working on the railroad and the evil situation they were in.

24 - An evil in the land

Quoting from the U.S. Supreme Court’s Holy Trinity Church v. United States

Background comment: This case began when Holy Trinity Church brought a minister from England to pastor their church. A bureaucrat charged the church with illegally “importing alien labor under contract”. The church argued that, while the church did violate the letter of the law it did not violate the intent of the law.

Are you wondering, in America there is supposed to be “freedom of religion”? So, how could the State bring the Church into court? The answer: Holy Trinity Church came under the court’s jurisdiction when it voluntarily became a state chartered tax-exempt non-profit corporation. Today these are called 501c3 churches.

The court said, “Plaintiff in error (Holy Trinity Church) is a corporation duly organized and incorporated as a religious society under the laws of the state of New York.”

When siding with the church the U.S. Supreme Court said:

“ Again, another guide to the meaning of a statute is found in the evil which it is designed to remedy; and for this the court properly looks at contemporaneous events, the situation as it existed, and as it was pressed upon the attention of the legislative body. U. S. v. Railroad Co., 91 U. S. 72, 79.

The situation which called for this statute was briefly but fully stated by Mr. Justice BROWN when, as district judge, he decided the case of U. S. v. Craig, 28 Fed. Rep. 795, 798: ‘The motives and history of the act are matters of common knowledge.

It had become the practice for large capitalists in this country to contract with their agents abroad for the shipment of great numbers of an ignorant and servile class of foreign laborers, under contracts by which the employer agreed, upon the one hand, to prepay their passage, while, upon the other hand, the laborers agreed to work after their arrival for a certain time at a low rate of wages.

The effect of this was to break down the labor market, and to reduce other laborers engaged in like occupations to the level [143 U.S. 457, 464] of the assisted immigrant.

The evil finally became so flagrant that an appeal was made to congress for relief by the passage of the act in question, the design of which was to raise the standard of foreign immigrants, and to discountenance the migration of those who had not sufficient means in their own hands, or those of their friends, to pay their passage.'

It appears, also, from the petitions, and in the testimony presented before the committees of congress, that it was this cheap, unskilled labor which was making the trouble, and the influx of which congress sought to prevent.

It was never suggested that we had in this country a surplus of brain toilers, and, least of all, that the market for the services of Christian ministers was depressed by foreign competition. Those were matters to which the attention of congress, or of the people, was not directed. So far, then, as the evil which [*514] was sought to be remedied interprets the statute, it also guides to an exclusion of this contract from the penalties of the act.

A singular circumstance, throwing light upon the intent of congress, is found in this extract from the report of the senate committee on education and labor, recommending the passage of the bill: 'The general facts and considerations which induce the committee to recommend the passage of this bill are set forth in the report of the committee of the house.

The committee report the bill back without amendment, although there are certain features thereof which might well be changed or modified, in the hope that the bill may not fail of passage during the present session.

Especially would the committee have otherwise recommended amendments, substituting for the expression, 'labor and service,' whenever it occurs in the body of the bill, the words 'manual labor' or 'manual service,' as sufficiently broad to accomplish the purposes of the bill, and that such amendments would remove objections which a sharp and perhaps unfriendly criticism may urge to the proposed legislation.

The committee, however, believing that the bill in its present form will be construed as including only those whose labor or service is manual in character, and being very desirous that the bill become a law before the adjournment, have reported the bill without [143 U.S. 457, 465] change.' Page 6059, Congressional Record, 48th Cong.

And, referring back to the report of the committee of the house, there appears this language: 'It seeks to restrain and prohibit the immigration or importation of laborers who would have never seen our shores but for the inducements and allurements of men whose only object is to obtain labor at the lowest possible rate, regardless of the social and material well-being of our own citizens, and regardless of the evil consequences which result to American laborers from such immigration.

This class of immigrants care nothing about our institutions, and in many instances never even heard of them. They are men whose passage is paid by the importers.

They come here under contract to labor for a certain number of years. They are ignorant of our social condition, and, that they may remain so, they are isolated and prevented from coming into contact with Americans. They are generally from the lowest social stratum, and live upon the coarsest food, and in hovels of a character before unknown to American workmen.

They, as a rule, do not become citizens, and are certainly not a desirable acquisition to the body politic. The inevitable tendency of their presence among us is to degrade American labor, and to reduce it to the level of the imported pauper labor.' Page 5359, Congressional Record, 48th Cong.

We find, therefore, that the title of the act, the evil which was intended to be remedied, the circumstances surrounding the appeal to Congress, the reports of the committee of each house, all concur in affirming that the intent of Congress was simply to stay the influx of this cheap, unskilled labor."

Comment: Again, this case got its start when Holy Trinity Church brought a minister from England to pastor their church. A bureaucrat charged the church with "importing alien labor under contract". A far wiser Congress of times past saw that the importation of cheap labor was evil and forbid it. The U.S. Supreme Court agreed.

Deuteronomy 24:14. Thou shalt not oppress an hired servant that is poor and needy, whether he be of thy brethren, or of thy strangers that are in thy land within thy gates:

Today big business simply leaves the Chinaman in China and fills the Big Box Stores with high profit, slave wage products. (Big Box Mart Jib Jab 2 min 24 sec - Nov 1, 2005)

Jobs that cannot be 'out sourced' are given, as much as possible, to immigrants at slave wage levels.

This not only provides low wages to workers, it also lowers the overall wage level of others. (In 2006) Some estimate that, because of guest workers and 'out sourcing' the average United States wage, depending on occupation, has fallen between $1,000 and $8,000 dollars per year.

Many of the 'downsized' workers now find their once good paying jobs at such low-income levels that they likewise are entitled welfare handouts. In addition, many Americans who previously paid Federal Income Taxes now receive 'earned income credits' of up to $4,000 per year.

The White-Europeans and other hard working Americans find their wage levels sinking lower and lower. (Further immigration does not help those already here.) In the words of Trinity Church v. U.S. above "The inevitable tendency of their presence among us is to degrade American labor, and to reduce it to the level of the imported pauper labor."

25 - More Bible Law on Inheritance

In the Bible, the English word translated inherit comes from two different Hebrew words, yarash (יָרַשׁ) and nachal (נָחַל). The first is yarash (יָרַשׁ) which means to possess or conquer a land even to drive out the present occupants. The second Hebrew word translated inherit is nachal (נָחַל). This 'inherit' has to do with keeping the land once you have obtained it.

יָרַשׁ YARASH Strong's Number: 3423 Pronunciation: yarash yaw-rash' Total Occurrences: 232

KJV Word Usage: possess (116) , ... out (46) , inherit (21) , heir (10) , possession (6) , succeed

(5) , dispossess (4) , poverty (3) , drive (2) , enjoy (2) , poor (2) , expelled (2) , utterly (2) , misc (11)

ירש yaresh yaw-raysh' a primitive root; TWOT-920; v

- 1d) (Hiphil)
- 1d1) to give as a possession
- 1d2) to cause to inherit, give as an inheritance
- 1e) (Hophal) to be allotted, be made to possess

26 - For national survival a people must 'yarash' the land then 'nachal' it

Step One. (yarash) To obtain the land. When the White Europeans came to North America they yarash the land. That is, they were not immigrants, rather they were colonists, pioneers, conquerors. They came to possess or conquer a land even to drive out the present occupants. The Israelites of old 'yarashed' Palestine away from the Cananites and others as recorded in the Old Testament. To illustrate the point, in the text below from Genesis 15 and 28 were 'yarash' means 'to obtain'.

Step Two. (nachal) To keep the land ‘for us and our posterity’. This ‘nachal’ is the second Hebrew word translated into the English inherit. Its definition is:

Nachal, To keep, to divide, to defend and to pass on to your heirs. To prevent other peoples from either yarish(ing) or nachal(ing) the land.

27 - From Abraham to America

Abraham the father of MANY nations.

Genesis 15:7-8 7. And he said unto him, I am the LORD that brought thee out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give thee this land to inherit (obtain) it. 8. And he said, Lord GOD, whereby shall I know that I shall inherit (obtain) it?

Genesis 28:4. And give thee the blessing of Abraham, to thee, and to thy seed with thee; that thou mayest inherit (obtain) the land wherein thou art a stranger, which God gave unto Abraham.

Scriptures For America offers a DVD titled From Abraham to America.

The Israelites of Old Testament times failed to 'naschal' the land. Because of continued disobedience their landlord God, he evicted them and put other tenants in their place. God's 'sheriff' sent to evict them was the armies of Assyria and Babylon. The evicted eventually found another home in Europe.

28 - Two forms of modern day warfare

China v. United States

Mexico v. United States

Trade war and foot power war

Mexico: Concerning the present situation between the U.S.A. and Mexico. In the past the Europeans yarash(ed) land from Mexicans. This was the U.S. Mexican War of 1846-1848. Today the White European American posterity is doing a very poor job of nachal(ing) the land. The U.S.- Mexico border is easily crossed. Most Mexicans who cross the border are allowed to stay. The Mexicans are yarash(ing) the land back from the Europeans via immigration. No guns or army needed. Simply (1) cross the border, (2) buy property or get a job, (3) register to vote (4) have babies, (5) help bring in relatives (6) elect Mexicans to office. Each of the 6 above items disposes primarily the White European. And after the 'Gringo' is dispossessed ALL others such as 'Native Americans' (Indians) and African-Americans will be targeted.

China: China is yarash(ing) North America from the European via outsourcing. The stupid European is making it easy via 'free trade'. (NAFTA etc.) In World Wars One and Two all the powers of the enemy nations could not shut down even one small factory in North America. The United States won the wars primarily because the United States could out manufacture Germany, Italy and Japan. The United States was called 'the arsenal of Democracy'.

Low wages in China and Mexico drive down wages in the United States. Without appropriate tariffs on imports and exports U.S. businesses, to remain 'competitive', outsource manufacturing. Factories are being closed, not by bombers and bombs as in World War Two Germany, but by silent economic warfare. Anyone taking a cruise down the Ohio River will see factory after factory rusting away. Huge factories that, at one time, employed thousands and all paying a living wage. These factories stand just as idle as if they had been bombed from the air.

Definitions of tariff on the Web:

- A duty(or tax) applied to goods transported from one country to another, or on imported products. Tariffs raise the prices of imported goods, thus making them less competitive within the market of the importing country.
www.afsc.org/trade-matters/learn-about/glossary.htm
- A fee that a government charges to the importer of a foreign good. Tariffs are passed along to the consumer through higher prices on imported goods.

- A duty levied on goods transported from one customs area to another either for protective or revenue purposes.

- A revenue instrument, normally the imposition of a single or multiple excise rate, used by governments on imported goods and services.

- A tariff is a tax placed on imported and/or exported goods, sometimes called a customs duty. A revenue tariff is set with the intent of raising money for the government. A protective tariff, usually applied to imported goods, is intended to artificially inflate prices of imports and "protect" domestic industries from foreign competition (see also effective rate of protection). ...

How economic warfare works: When there is a trade imbalance not corrected by tariffs money flows to the low wage nation. All the dollars going to low wage nations must return somehow. The return should be by the purchase of Made in U.S.A. goods and services. But since the foreign slave wage employees cannot afford to purchase much at all the profits are then used by the merchants to purchase more United States business, industry and real estate. This further enriches the merchants allowing them to buy more of the target nation's resources. (A violation of the Bible's Inheritance laws.)

Put your thinking cap on: Might a nation on the borders of the target rich nation benefit from having a large number of poor? Yes, if a takeover were the goal, then poverty would promote immigration into the target nation. Look at the South West of the United States. Is it being prepared for a Mexican takeover? Poor Mexicans cross the border, get jobs such as police officer, buy property, register to vote, elect fellow Mexicans into public office.

Or might a distant nation benefit from low wages in factories making merchandise for the target nation? (Yes.) Having single young low wage people living in factory dormitories increases the trade deficit of the targeted nation. The greater the target's trade deficit the more money available to purchase the target's business and industry. It is much easier, safer, and more economical making war this way than by turning these same young people into soldiers and sending them to get shot at and killed as they try to invade and take the target nation by force.

Revelation 18 (Merchants, cargo ships, slavery)

1. And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.

2. And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3. For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4. And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6. Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.

7. How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8. Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9. And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10. Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

11. And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

12. The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

13. And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men.

14. And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

15. The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16. And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

17. For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off,

18. And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city!

19. And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

20. Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her

A business in the United States will have a (1) manufacturing buildings, (2) patents and trade secrets, and (3) an established distribution network to get the products sold.

- The people in the targeted nation buy low wage foreign products resulting in a trade deficit.
- The targeted people buy other products such as automobiles thus helping to close their own automobile factories and helping to put their own autoworkers out of work.
- The foreign nation buys the real estate, business and industry of the target nation with the excess trade dollars.
- When the foreign company buys the business, along with the business they get the patents and trade secrets.
- They operate the U.S.A. factory long enough to learn the business and build a new manufacturing plant in their own land.
- The foreigners use the now closed factory's existing distribution network to sell the foreign made product.
- Each purchase of Chinese product at a Big Box Store brings a Chinese soldier closer to our shores.
- With all the closed manufacturing plants America has no chance to be a future 'arsenal of democracy'. In a time of war, if new factories were needed, they could not even be built since the building materials would have to be imported from the enemy nation's factories on the enemy nations ships. This kind of an enemy has no need to bomb U.S.A. factories simply because there will be none.

29 - The God of the Bible claims ownership of the Earth.

Genesis 14:2. And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have lift up mine hand unto the LORD, the most high God, the possessor of heaven and earth,

Exodus 19:55. Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine:

Sometimes God moves people into vacant lands. At other times God takes land from one people and gives it to another. Landlords will, from time to time, evict one tenant and move in another. God is no different, vacant properties are rented and tenants who misbehave are evicted.

One of the curses for breaking God's Laws, Statutes and Judgments is found in Deuteronomy 28:49. The LORD shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand;

The Revolutionary War and the War of 1812 against England were just about the only wars fought against people speaking the same language as the Americans. Do the White Europeans living in violation of God's Laws, Statutes and Judgments understand Chinese? Read all about, what many believe is a prophesied invasion of North America by China and its allies, it is in Ezekiel 38 and 39.

30 - Psalms 37

God causes evildoers to be evicted

9. For evildoers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth.
11. But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.
22. For such as be blessed of him shall inherit the earth; and they that be cursed of him shall be cut off.
29. The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever.
34. Wait on the LORD, and keep his way,

2. And they said, The LORD commanded my lord to give the land for an inheritance by lot to the children of Israel: and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother unto his daughters.
3. And if they be married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then shall their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and shall be put to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: so shall it be taken from the lot of our inheritance.
4. And when the jubilee of the children of Israel shall be, then shall their inheritance be put unto the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

The land in Numbers 36 was taken by conquest from another people. Once in Israel's possession, the land was to be kept and the prior remaining tenants evicted. The United States took land by conquest from Mexico in the Mexican-American war. Upon the conclusion of the war remaining Mexicans should have been deported and the border secured.

Likewise, had Mexico won the war, it would have been Mexico's duty do evict any remaining White European property owners. Tourists and those visitors looking for a good Mexican restaurant would be welcome, but not as citizens or property owners.

and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

31 - Numbers 36

More about the limits on the transfer of land

Ownership of land was not to move from one tribe to another. A modern day application would be, the land of one state is not to pass to another. The land of one nation is not to pass to another.

7. So shall not the inheritance of the children of Israel remove from tribe to tribe: for every one of the children of Israel shall keep himself to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.
8. And every daughter, that possesseth an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel, shall be wife unto one of the family of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may enjoy every man the inheritance of his fathers.
9. Neither shall the inheritance remove from one tribe to another tribe; but every one of the tribes of the children of Israel shall keep himself to his own inheritance.
12. And they were married into the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

32 - God's Warning in Numbers 33

Numbers 33:55. But if ye will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you; then it shall come to pass, that those which ye let remain of them shall be pricks in your eyes, and thorns in your sides, and shall vex you in the land wherein ye dwell.

The above verse in context and its application to the United States:

50. And the LORD spake unto Moses in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho, saying,

51. Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye are passed over Jordan into the land of Canaan;

52. Then ye shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and destroy all their pictures, and destroy all their molten images, and quite pluck down all their high places:

53. And ye shall dispossess the inhabitants of the land, and dwell therein: for I have given you the land to possess it.

54. And ye shall divide the land by lot for an inheritance among your families: and to the more ye shall give the more inheritance, and to the fewer ye shall give the less inheritance: every man's inheritance shall be in the place where his lot falleth; according to the tribes of your fathers ye shall inherit.

55. But if ye will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you; then it shall come to pass, that those which ye let remain of them shall be pricks in your eyes, and thorns in your sides, and shall vex you in the land wherein ye dwell.

The immigrants from Mexico and other non White European lands are doing just as God promised they would. Today they are "pricks in your eyes, and thorns in your sides, and shall vex you in the land wherein ye dwell."

56. Moreover it shall come to pass, that I shall do unto you, as I thought to do unto them.

This means the eventual eviction of White Europeans from North America! This is already taking place slowly in many states such as California, Texas and New Mexico.

33 - Deuteronomy 28

Moses Warning

First part of Deuteronomy 28 lists God's promised national blessings for obedience to his Laws, Statutes and Judgments. Do you know? Has your Pastor ever explained it? Or did the nice friendly Pastor tell you, "That's Old Testament and all done away in Jesus." Did your Pastor ever explain, just what exactly is a law, a statute and a judgment? Or did he just say, "Don't worry about it. It's done away in Jesus"? For example:

- A Law: Thou shalt not speed.
- A Statute: A speed limit of 25 miles per hour in a residential neighborhood.
- A Judgment: Court costs plus a fine of $5.00 for every mile over the limit.

Click here for an explanation of Bible "Laws, Statutes and Judgments".

As you read this list of national blessings notice the wording "the Lord shall". Is this a promise or what?

1. And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth:

2. And all these blessings shall come on thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God.

3. Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field.

4. Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattle, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

5. Blessed shall be thy basket and thy store.

6. Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

7. The LORD shall cause thine enemies that rise up against thee to be smitten before thy face: they shall come out against thee one way, and flee before thee seven ways.

8. The LORD shall command the blessing upon thee in thy storehouses, and in all that thou settest thine hand unto; and he shall bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

9. The LORD shall establish thee an holy people unto himself, as he hath sworn unto thee, if thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, and walk in his ways.

10. And all people of the earth shall see that thou art called by the name of the LORD; and they shall be afraid of thee.

11. And the LORD shall make thee plenteous in goods, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers to give thee.

12. The LORD shall open unto thee his good treasure, the heaven to give the rain unto thy land in his season, and to bless all the work of thine hand: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow.

13. And the LORD shall make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them:

14. And thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command thee this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

Second, the promised curses to God's people for breaking God's Laws, Statutes and Judgments. The clergy tell you that the Jews in Palestine are God's people. Put your 'thinking caps' on as you read the following and ask yourself. Where is this being fulfilled, in America or in Israeli?

15. But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and overtake thee:

Inner city crime and slums. Verse 16

16. Cursed shalt thou be in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field.

17. Cursed shall be thy basket and thy store.

Abortion clinics and birth defects. Verse 18

18. Cursed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy kine, (cattle) and the flocks of thy sheep.

Blue Monday and "Thank God it's Friday".

19. Cursed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and cursed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

20. The LORD shall send upon thee cursing, vexation, and rebuke, in all that thou settest thine hand unto for to do, until thou be destroyed, and until thou perish quickly; because of the wickedness of thy doings, whereby thou hast forsaken me.

In 2006, 250 billion dollars just for prescription medicine. Verses 21 and 22.

21. The LORD shall make the pestilence cleave unto thee, until he have consumed thee from off the land, whither thou goest to possess it.

22. The LORD shall smite thee with a consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the sword, and with blasting, and with mildew; and they shall pursue thee until thou perish.

23. And thy heaven that is over thy head shall be brass, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron.

24. The LORD shall make the rain of thy land powder and dust: from heaven shall it come down upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

25. The LORD shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them: and shalt be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

26. And thy carcase shall be meat unto all fowls of the air, and unto the beasts of the earth, and no man shall fray them away.

Cancer in verse 27 and heart attack in verse 28.

27. The LORD will smite thee with the botch of Egypt, and with the emerods, and with the scab, and with the itch, whereof thou canst not be healed.

28. The LORD shall smite thee with madness, and blindness, and astonishment of heart:

29. And thou shalt grope at noonday, as the blind gropeth in darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways: and thou shalt be only oppressed and spoiled evermore, and no man shall save thee.

America's increasing divorce rate in verse 30.

30. Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: thou shalt build an house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not gather the grapes thereof.

31. Thine ox shall be slain before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eat thereof: thine ass shall be violently taken away from before thy face, and shall not be restored to thee: thy sheep shall be given unto thine enemies, and thou shalt have none to rescue them.

An ever-increasing number of mixed marriages between White-Europeans and Minorities. Parents helpless to prevent these marriages. Verse 32.

32. Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given unto another people, and thine eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day long: and there shall be no might in thine hand

Welfare to immigrants in verse 33.

33. The fruit of thy land, and all thy labours, shall a nation which thou knowest not eat up; and thou shalt be only oppressed and crushed away:

34. So that thou shalt be mad for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

35. The LORD shall smite thee in the knees, and in the legs, with a sore botch that cannot be healed, from the sole of thy foot unto the top of thy head.

36. The LORD shall bring thee, and thy king which thou shalt set over thee, unto a nation which neither thou nor thy fathers have known; and there shalt thou serve other gods, wood and stone.

37. And thou shalt become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword, among all nations whither the LORD shall lead thee.

38. Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field, and shalt gather but little in; for the locust shall consume it.

39. Thou shalt plant vineyards, and dress them, but shalt neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes; for the worms shall eat them.

40. Thou shalt have olive trees throughout all thy coasts, but thou shalt not anoint thyself with the oil; for thine olive shall cast his fruit.

The older World War Two generation parents who must now help their children financially due to lowered wages (economic captivity) in verse 41.

41. Thou shalt beget sons and daughters, but thou shalt not enjoy them; for they shall go into captivity.
42. All thy trees and fruit of thy land shall the locust consume.

Immigrants becoming citizens and elected to public office in verse 43.

43. The stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high; and thou shalt come down very low.

The ever increasing national debt and ever increasing numbers of non-White office holders in verse 44

44. He shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him: (The Federal Reserve Banks and the National Debt.) he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail. (Aliens in public office.)

45. Moreover all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, till thou be destroyed; because thou hearkenedst not unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded thee:

46. And they shall be upon thee for a sign and for a wonder, and upon thy seed for ever.

47. Because thou servedst not the LORD thy God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things;

48. Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies which the LORD shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee.

Wars with non-English speaking nations, Germany, Italy and Japan in WW 2, Korea, Viet-Nam, Iraq and perhaps even China. Verse 49

49. The LORD shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand;

50. A nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor shew favour to the young:

51. And he shall eat the fruit of thy cattle, and the fruit of thy land, until thou be destroyed: which also shall not leave thee either corn, wine, or oil, or the increase of thy kine, or flocks of thy sheep, until he have destroyed thee.

52. And he shall besiege thee in all thy gates, until thy high and fenced walls come down, wherein thou trustedst, throughout all thy land: and he shall besiege thee in all thy gates throughout all thy land, which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

53. And thou shalt eat the fruit of thine own body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters, which the LORD thy God hath given thee, in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee:

54. So that the man that is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children which he shall leave:

55. So that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat: because he hath nothing left him in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in all thy gates.

56. The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter,

57. And toward her young one that cometh out from between her feet, and toward her children which she shall bear: for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly in the siege and straitness, wherewith thine enemy shall distress thee in thy gates.

58. If thou wilt not observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that thou mayest fear this glorious and fearful name, THE LORD THY GOD;

59. Then the LORD will make thy plagues wonderful, and the plagues of thy seed, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and sore sicknesses, and of long continuance.

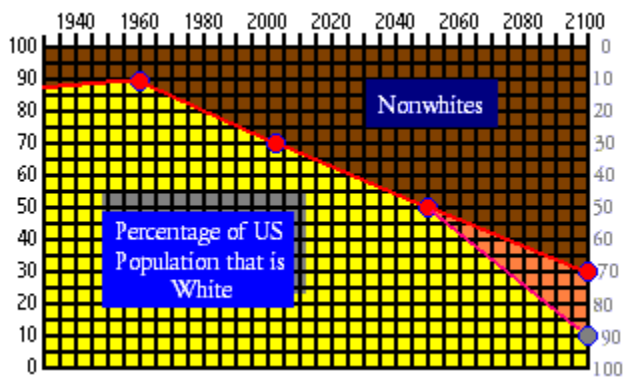

60. Moreover he will bring upon thee all the diseases of Egypt, which thou wast afraid of; and they shall cleave unto thee.

America's health costs are huge and bankrupting families, governments (Medicare and Medicaid) and businesses (Health benefits). Verse 61.

61. Also every sickness, and every plague, which is not written in the book of this law, them will the LORD bring upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

62. And ye shall be left few in number, whereas ye were as the stars of heaven for multitude; because thou wouldest not obey the voice of the LORD thy God.

Some predict that the White Race will soon be extinct.

63. And it shall come to pass, that as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it.

United States has military personnel scattered all over the earth where they find no ease. The U.S. has approximately 370,000 soldiers scattered in at least 120 countries. Verse 64-66.

64. And the LORD shall scatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone.

65. And among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest: but the LORD shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind:

66. And thy life shall hang in doubt before thee; and thou shalt fear day and night, and shalt have none assurance of thy life:

67. In the morning thou shalt say, Would God it were even! and at even thou shalt say, Would God it were morning! for the fear of thine heart wherewith thou shalt fear, and for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

68. And the LORD shall bring thee into Egypt again with ships, by the way whereof I spake unto thee, Thou shalt see it no more again: and there ye shall be sold unto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no man shall buy you.

34 - TARES In Your Side

The following from Deuteronomy 4 can be applied to England, Europe and the U.S.A.

34. Or hath God assayed to go and take him a nation from the midst of another nation,

(The migration of White Europeans from England and Europe to America.)

by temptations, by signs, and by wonders, and by war,

(Revolutionary war, Spanish American War, War of 1812, Mexican-American war, etc.)

and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched out arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

35. Unto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest know that the LORD he is God; there is none else beside him.

36. Out of heaven he made thee to hear his voice, that he might instruct thee: and upon earth he shewed thee his great fire; and thou heardest his words out of the midst of the fire.

37. And because he loved thy fathers, therefore he chose their seed after them, and brought thee out in his sight with his mighty power out of Egypt;

38. To drive out nations from before thee greater and mightier than thou art, to bring thee in, to give thee their land for an inheritance, as it is this day. (The Native Americans were driven out. In the Revolutionary War the Colonists drove out England which was at that time the most powerful nation on Earth.)

39. Know therefore this day, and consider it in thine heart, that the LORD he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else.

(What the White Europeans must do to keep the land.)

40. Thou shalt keep therefore his statutes, and his commandments, which I command thee this day, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the earth, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, for ever.

35 - Is there hope?

Romans 11 quotes Isaiah 59:20

Romans 11:26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

34% of Romans 9, 10, and 11 are quotations of the Old Testament. How can 'New Testament Christians' understand Paul if they do not know he is quoting the Old Testament and further, if they do not first understand the verses quoted, how can they understand?

Isaiah 59:19-21 So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him.

20. And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.

21. As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD; My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

Isaiah 13:13-14. Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger. 14. And it shall be as the chased roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land.

You ask, what do Romans 11 and Isaiah 13 have to do with America? In many Bibles Romans 9, 10 and 11 are titled; Salvation has come to the Gentiles. Have you ever wondered why Gentiles is capitalized in the New Testament? You won't find the answer in a 501c3 church. A study of Romans 9,10 and 11 will explain the America connection and why Gentiles is capitalized.

37 - In the Last Days

Isaiah 2:2 And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD'S house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.

Micah 4:1 But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it.

Do these words about nations in the "last days" remind you of the famous writing on the Statue of Liberty? “Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free.”

Ask yourself, in Bible language, is The United States "the top of the mountains," and is it "exalted above the hills?" and do “people flow into it?” And finally, ask yourself, are we living in the "latter days"?

May God, once again, bless America.

WHO Brought the Slaves to America is an expose with insights into the trafficking of humans to the Americas. Little known facts are brought forth from the hidden or concealed history of the United States.

Quotes: "If the Negro people ever learn what the Jews did to the Black people of Africa there could be an uprising unequalled in American history."

"Eyrger and Sayller, with strong Rothschild connections in Spain, formed an agency called ASIENTO, which later operated in Holland and England. It was through these connections the Jews in Holland and England exerted influence and both of these countries cooperated in helping the Jews provide Black Slaves for the Colonists."
